Martha Saunders, 93, of Bondurant, Wyo., passed away on Nov. 6, 2022. A memorial service will be held at St. Hubert the Hunter Episcopal Church in Bondurant on Nov. 19 from 2 to 5 p.m. Crowd accommodations are planned.

EMT course planned to address local need

SUBLETTE COUNTY — In an effort to address the growing need for trained emergency medical technicians (EMTs) in Sublette County, Sublette BOCES and the Sublette County Hospital District have teamed up to develop and provide a Basic EMT Certification Course. This course will begin on Jan. 9, 2023, and end on May 10, 2023. The registration deadline for this class is Dec. 19. Scholarships are available for county residents through Sublette BOCES to assist with the cost of this course. For more information on applying for this scholarship, please email sboces@sub1.org.

Public relations director for the hospital district Kari DeWitt notes, "We are very pleased to partner with Sublette BOCES to provide this important class. If you have ever considered becoming an EMT, this is your chance to do so. It is a fulfilling career that is vital to the health of our community. We are lucky to have such qualified local instructors."

This course will be taught by local instructor and paramedic Jenny Michaud, who used to teach EMT courses at Laramie County Community College and intermediate EMT Jen Adam.

If you are interested in becoming nationally certified in a fast-paced and high-opportunity field, this is the course for you.

Classes will be Mondays and Wednesdays from 6-10 p.m. and five Saturdays. For more information or to register, email SCEMSed@gmail.com or call 307-200-7289.

used? A nation that has been supporting and laundering money for the Bush, Clinton and Obama foundations and one in which many of our current Democratic leaders have children or they themselves tied to various corporations (follow the money). It is this kind of corruption that crosses the aisle and is a result of our "Constitutional Republic" being transformed in to a "Tyranny of Democracy."

In the wake of Biden's speech on democracy, one former leftist responded with this, "First of all the United States of America is not a democracy ... America is a republic. It was designed as a republic because the framers of our country knew that democracies could easily descend into mob rule."

I personally cringe whenever I hear Biden or Obama say someone is a threat to our democracy, because we were never intended to be a democracy! Our founding fathers were brilliant in the establishment of our constitutional republic. In it there is democratic voting, but individual power is limited by the existence of a constitution that protects certain rights. In a constitutional republic, the people elect representatives who are supposed to represent their interests and not that of the ones who donate the most money to their campaign or the many lobby groups or global elites that literally buy, bribe or blackmail their vote. The founders never intended for the power to be held by a select group of people for incredibly long periods of time or that they could override the powers of the individual states. The "original" intent was to give the federal government limited powers for limited purposes, while state governments retain most of the powers of government.

The Constitution describes this division of power, establishing which specific powers have been given to the federal government, while reiterating that most remain with the state governments. There have been countless overreaches of our federal government with the most glaring example being the original enforcement of Roe v. Wade upon all states. The overturning of that awful decision simply returned it to the voice of each of the individual states according to the mandates set forth by our Constitution. Most of these egregious overreaches by our federal government are actually illegal, according to our Constitution.

"A constitutional republic is a system of laws to protect citizens and contain government. Tyranny (or mob rule) is not an idle statement. 51.1 percent may force its will on 49.9 percent in a Democracy!"

That is precisely why our founding fathers established this nation as a constitutional republic. Our nation took a huge step away from being a "constitutional republic" with the formation of the Federal Reserve System in 1913, which brought central control to our monetary system. This private entity under the control of several global elite banking cabals is known as the Central Bank and they literally supervise, regulate and control almost all of the exchange rates and movement of currency worldwide.

The Rothchild and Rockefeller families are two of the biggest players in this cabal and exert a tremendous amount of influence over the politics of our nation. Along with the other players I mentioned earlier, they all are working very hard to bankrupt our nation and force us by default to bow to their One World, One Religion, Utopian Totalitarian Rule. They are also the ones financing many of these ludicrous agendas of the far-left liberals that fly flat in the face of most God-fearing Americans.

My "brilliant" father, as I stated in my last column, would have said, "Who voted for all these bozos?"

The fake news now has many ignorant people in America believing the most important issues of our day are the Green New Deal, LBGTQ and abortion rights and on and on the list of absolutely stupid things goes.

As my father told me when I was old enough to vote, there are only two things that matter in a national election and that is, "What will they do for our economy and how will they protect our nation, its people and our freedoms?"

Now, the most important decisions our government leaders are making are whether biological males should be able to compete in women's sports and use their locker rooms and at what age children should be taught that they can change their God-given gender, that critical race theory is actually a real thing and that you should be able to murder a child up to 28 days after they are born, and of all the most disgusting things they are doing is actually trying to groom children so they are alright with pedophilia. This is our "enlightened" New World Order trying to subvert everything that was good and pure and right about this once great nation of ours, that prided itself on "Liberty & Justice for all!" and in "God We Trust!"

It is time to awaken citizens of America before it is too late!
